NORFOLK CATHOLIC
HIGH SCHOOL

Norfolk, Virginia

Volume Twelve

Published by the Senior Class

. . . and to all those within

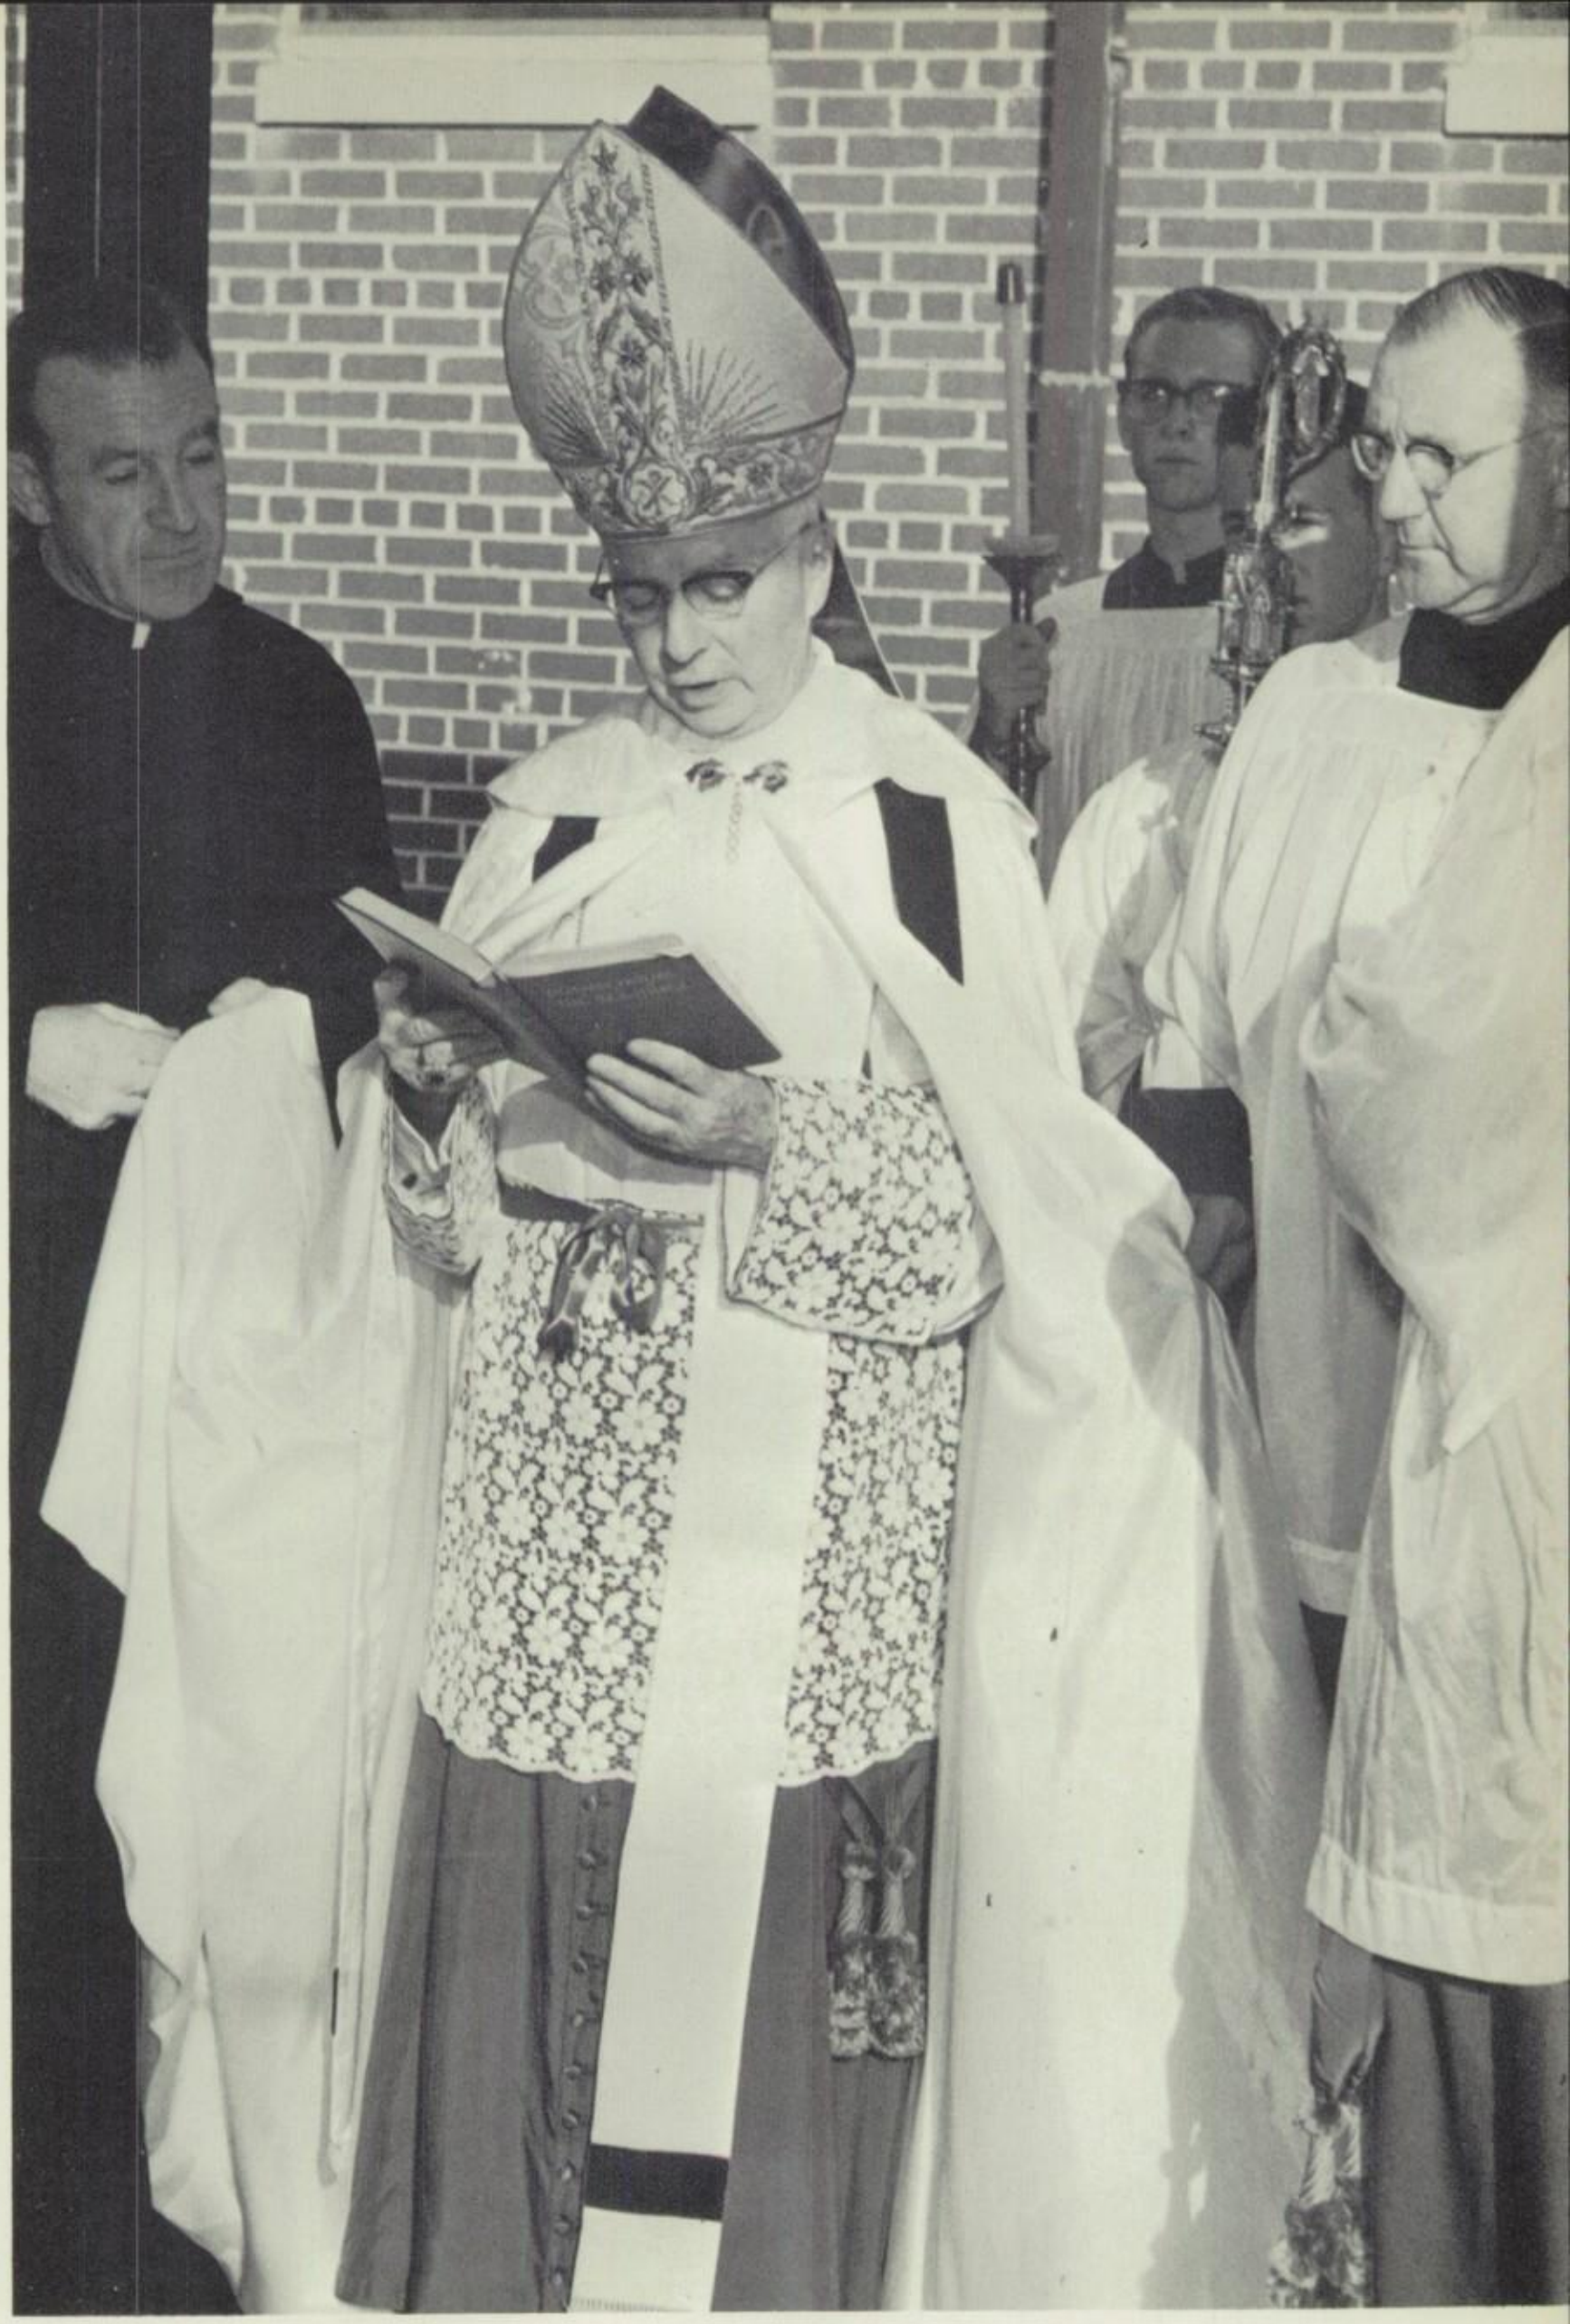
On September 24, Norfolk Catholic dedicated its newest edition, the William T. Glennan Wing. This wing provides eight new classrooms, each with a TV set; four labs—chemistry, biology, languages and business; a band room; three offices; and a TV studio. This new building has made possible the admittance of one hundred and fifty additional students, thereby increasing the influence of Catholic education in this area.

In the prayers prescribed for the dedication of a school, we note the words of Christ, "When you enter into a house, give this greeting, 'Peace be to this house'." The Crusader '62 is devoted to promoting this same peace and harmony in our school, among all those who teach and learn within.

THE STATUE OF OUR LADY of Norfolk on the north lawn is a symbol to all passers-by of our school's Catholic spirit.

MONSIGNOR MICHAEL CANNON, chairman of the Board of Directors of Norfolk Catholic High School gives the invocation at the opening of the dedication ceremony.



THE MOST REVEREND JOHN J. RUSSELL D.D.
BISHOP OF RICHMOND

We will remember . . .

A sharp sense of humor, a friendly smile, a sincere interest in his students — these are just a few of the characteristics of Reverend Paul Harrigan. Before his transfer to St. Paul's High School in Portsmouth, Father Harrigan served as moderator of the Key Club and Student Council, taught religion, counciled the boys in their spiritual and scholastic needs, and contributed so much to NCHS and to its students, even while occasionally laying down the law as Assistant Principal. Anyone who visited Father Harrigan's office, for one reason — or another — were attracted by the colorful and inspiring pictures on the walls. These originals served as proof of Father's artistic talent. Coffee cups and a handsome percolator attested to the many sociable coffee breaks. For all of this, we will remember always that sandy-haired Irishman, Father Paul Harrigan.

WITH POM-POMS, undying spirit, and loud but hoarse voices, the indefatigable Pep Club turns out again.

OCTOBER

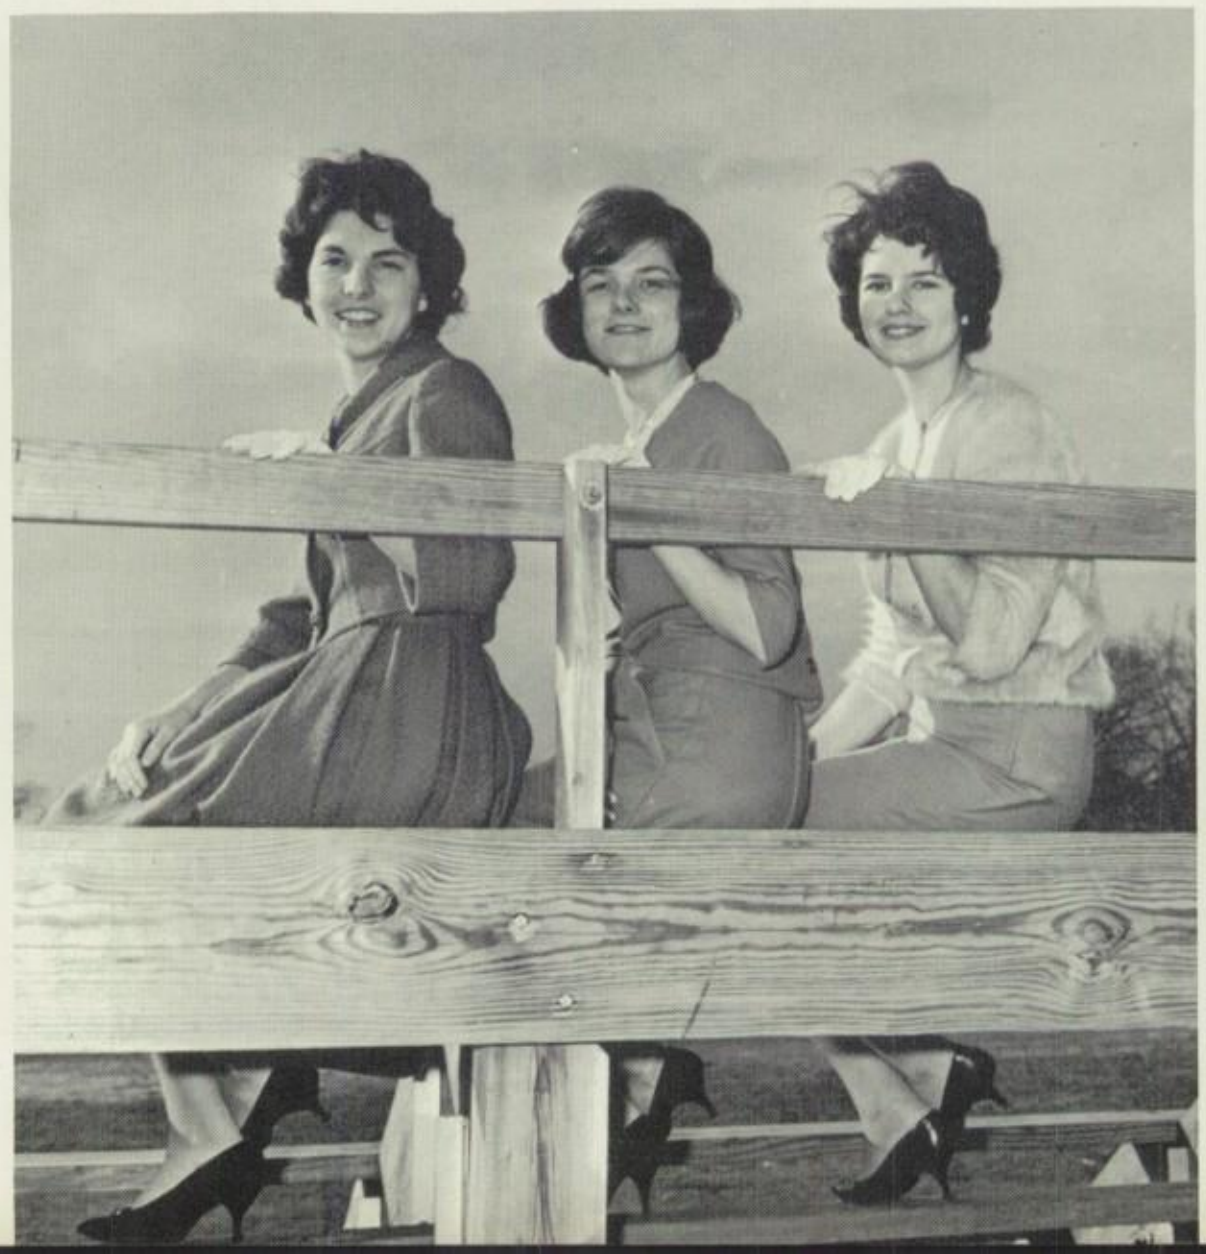
WINDBLOWN AND EXCITED from the half-time festivities Nancy Haskett, Patti Magee, and Cathy Roberts represented the Seniors in the Queen's court at the homecoming game.



CATHOLIC DELEGATES TO THE CSPA CONVENTION at Columbia University, Patti Magee, Patty Greer, Nancy Haskett, Maureen Norton, and Joe-Ann Thatcher, not only learned about yearbook production and admired the Medalist books but also alienated several cab drivers and thrilled to the rising curtain of CAMELOT.

"BUT THIR, WE COME TO THENIOR COURT because we want to be lawyerths," replies "Freshman" Cooksey. His fellow "classmates," Steve Greer and Nancy Haskett remain unimpressed by his eloquence and acting during the yearbook assembly.

"THEY GET PRETTIER EVERY YEAR," muses John Lockie as Mike Caprio, at the highpoint of the yearbook assembly, crowns "Charlene" Vivier, Homeing Queen of 1961.

OCTOBER

COLLEGE NIGHT, SPONSORED BY THE STUDENT COUNCIL, gave students the opportunity to discuss their future educational plans with representatives of various Catholic Colleges. Tony Zontini is intent on the possibility of his attending Notre Dame while his father muses on his football-playing days at his Alma Mater.

HIGHLIGHT OF THE FASHION SHOW given by the Junior Class was the full length dress worn by Cheryl Iantosca.

NOVEMBER

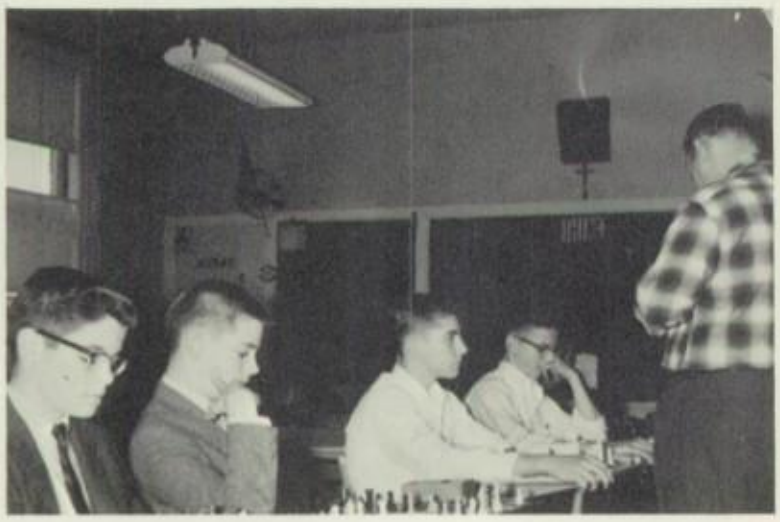
THE HUB AND FAMOUS JUNIORS supplies the fashions worn by Ellen Hancock, Fred Keilty, Virginia Gillette and Billy Mitchell.

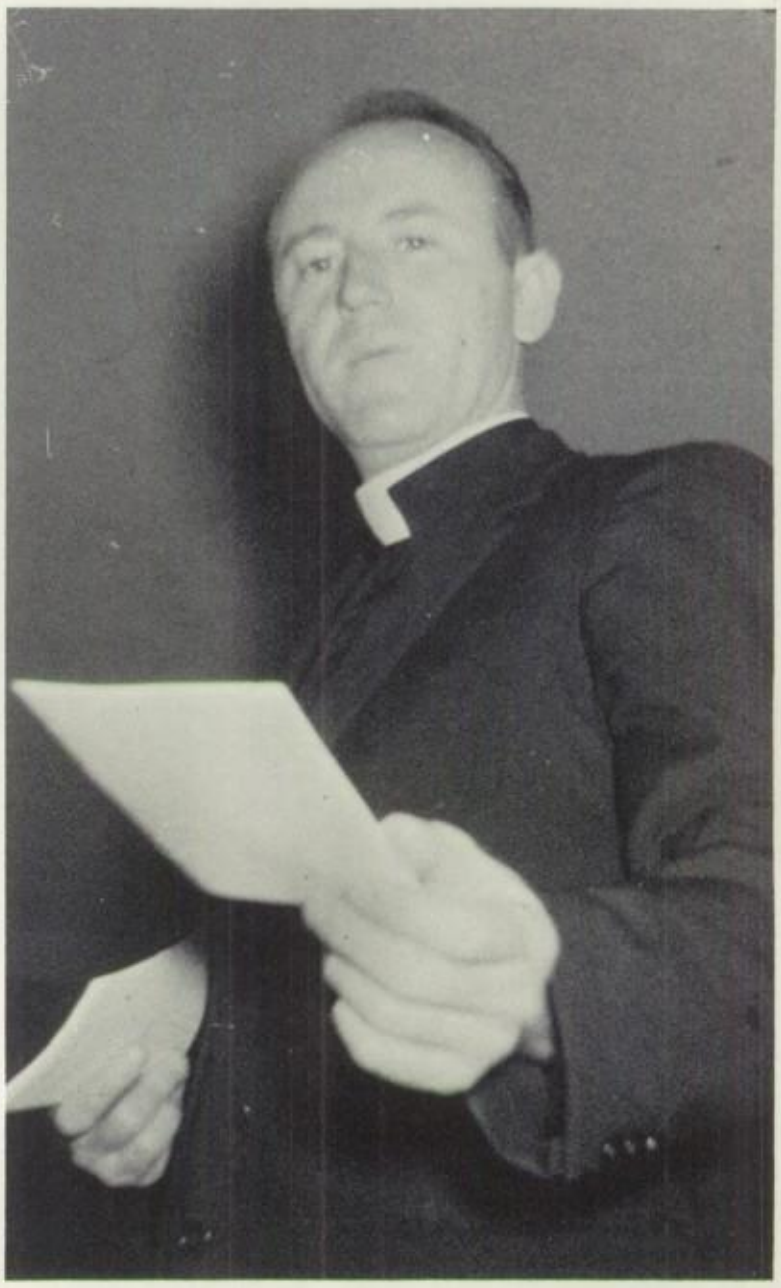
OFF AGAIN TO DEFEND CATHOLIC, CHEERLEADERS, Patty Greer and Nancy Haskett really hope George Raiss will take care of their packing once he shows Mr. South just what is in his suit case.

CLAUD BLOODGOOD is silently engaged in a simultaneous chess match with eight Norfolk Catholic Chess Club members.



FATHER MAIORIELLO GRACIOUSLY accepts his Christmas gift from Jim Evans, president of the Key Club.

"What happened TO YOU THIS SIX WEEKS?" Who is the student from Christ the King Parish receiving his report card from Father Nudd?



"NOT TOO MUCH GREY, MR. GUNN!" Margaret McCafferty emphasizes the point as Mr. Gunn prepares "Sarah" for the Christmas play.

WHO TOLD THAT JOKE? Obviously, Coach Bruno. Mr. George Hughes, speaker at this year's Football Banquet, and co-captain Mike Caprio and Ralph Earley acquiesce to his mood.

FATHER MAIORIELLO celebrates Solemn High Mass at Christmas with the student body in attendance.

GLEE CLUB MEMBERS look leary as they await the "on" cue from Sister Regina Mary to begin the Christmas Pageant.

MELCHIORE DESCRIBES THE UNBELIEF shown on the faces of the Jewish woman, Margaret McCafferty, and her son, Jerry Long.

WHAT'S THE MATTER, too much snow? Pat Kennedy, Sue Goeble, and John Lockie, although cold, seem to be enjoying one of the biggest storms of the season(?)

AT THE CEREMONIES held by the P.T.A. for Father's departure, Paul Mullen voices the sentiments of the faculty and students.

JANUARY

PERHAPS A PECULIAR WRESTLING HOLD, but it is sufficient to keep Tommy Wilson of Ferguson on the mat long enough for Joey Caprio to pin him.

HEY, CHARLIE! WHAT'S THE HURRY? queries Frank Coppola of the Saints.

ON YOUR MARK, GET SET — Go! Keith Nickols and Bill Titterman, representing Catholic in the first meet of the season, are off to take their first win.

OOO-POO-POO-DOO! What a time Barbara Smith, Susan Bean, and Barry Oliver had in the Talent Show doing numbers from the "Roaring Twenties."

Best of Luck in the years to come.

JOEY CAPRIO assures young Doctor Riccardo that George Desgain is suffering from loss of school spirit. Mike O'Brien awaits the verdict during the assembly on Shout Week.

THE CAMERA MAN stops Denie Fedorowicz in one of her stationary movements in the championship game with Saint Gertrude's.

EVEN IF JACKIE GEARHEART looks nonchalant for the camera man as Bishop Russell presents her with the K of C first-place trophy, she becomes ecstatic right after the flash.

KEITH NICHOLS beams with joy because Maureen Norton was crowned Sweetheart at the annual Key Club Dance.

MR. SOUTH CONGRATULATES Ronnie Gambardella and Susan Cote, on their being chosen Mr. and Miss School Spirit during Shout Week.

MRS. FITZPATRICK SMILES with the confidence of a coach after the Crusaderettes skillfully won their third straight Catholic Girls' championship.

SCHOLARSHIP IS RECOGNIZED at the Honor Society induction. Richard Harris seems to have his mind on his torch of scholarship, which almost caused an on-stage fire, and not on new members Jack Myers, Holly Winters, Darlene Arthur, Sandra Sample, Don Nemetz and Rose Marie Vellines.

THE SENIOR RETREAT conducted by Father Speight of St. Mary's, Suffolk, offers students a chance to stop and think—of the straight and narrow path.

"LET'S HAVE A PARTY" rejoices Tom Bixon of the winning Freshmen cast, in the one act play contest. Joanne Serlich, Barry Oliver, Dianne Wood and Cathy Gillette eagerly agree.

MARCH

"THE MOTION IS OPEN TO DISCUSSION" announces the president, Paul Mullen, at the open meeting of the Student Council. Peggy Chapman offers her opinion on the matter.

HER MAJESTY TONI BRANIGHAN, queen of the Junior Prom, and her escort Carl Ward, live it up. Other celebrities present were Ellen Hancock, Peggy Chapman, Mike Hayes and Cheryl Iantosca.

"HE DOESN'T LOVE ME" complains Patti Magee, in the winning senior one act play. Jane Bobczynski listens sympathetically; Jimmy Dunn is somewhat less than sympathetic.

APRIL

MEMBERS OF THE WINNING BOY'S Intra-mural basketball champions are Coach, Cocky Lockie, John Cooksey, Richard Wolf, Joe Jaggard, Ned Riccardo, Michael Caprio, Hervy Trimeyer, and George Desgain.

SENIOR GIRLS take Intra-mural trophy. Team members are Holly Winters, Sharon Weimer, Jerry Klucz, Jackie Gearheart, Kathy Donlon, Stephanie Blandin, Martha Holly, Suzanne Wilson, and Stephanie Smith.

A LONG DAY for Michael Caprio as Patti Magee gets ready to present him with the Group II 100 yard dash medal.

THE NEWEST ADDITION to the roster of clubs at Norfolk Catholic is the Canteen Club. Charter members include M. Slattery, B. Hall, N. McMullen, S. Sample, B. Watson, L. Flanagan, S. Zane, W. Wurzel, K. Murray, W. Brown, J. Cahill, H. Alm.

NCHS UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS wait in silence for the entrance of their retreat master Father King, O.M.I.

GARY DZIKOWSKI AND MARY KAY COWAN seem completely carried away with their success in the Student Council elections.

"EAT, DRINK, AND BE MERRY" is the theme of the guests of honor and their hungry athletes at the sumptuous Athletic Banquet, held in that connoisseur's haven—the NCHS cafeteria.

LOOKING ANYTHING BUT a sparkling "SEVENTEEN" continuous hard work and late rehearsal hours have dulled the senior's spark that will nevertheless burn bright when their play opens.

these are the crusaders

The eyes of football-minded fans everywhere were on the 1961 Crusaders. The big question was could Coach Bruno establish Catholic as a football power? Record-wise, the season settled nothing. Outstanding team spirit and hustle were noteworthy assets of the players. More than once it was evident that the squad had no intention of being impressed by the supreme power of their opponents. Not once during the season could the team be accused of having a mental attitude of defeat.

FINESSE BECOMES REALITY—when Fred Stant controls the tip in the opening game against Granby.

inexperience hampers basketballers

It was a long hard year for the Crusader's basketball team. Encountering its worst season in the school's history, the team showed sparks of greatness in some of their contests, and a complete lack of competence in others. Stunning victories were followed by dismaying defeats. In the season's opener against Norfolk Academy, the Crusader's showed a great deal of promise, having a good eye and a scoring punch.

Though suffering many losses during the season, the overall picture indicates great hope for the future. The outstanding services of John Lockie, Terry Falls and Charles Williams, three graduating seniors, turned the tide towards victory in many of the contests. It was the underclassmen who stood out as a bright beacon for future seasons.

Mike O'Brien, Fred Stant, and Gary Dzikowski demonstrated their scoring and rebounding ability in every game. Fred Stant, who has shown a great deal of promise in the last two years, was Catholic's contribution to the All-State Basketball team; Spunky 5'6" Mike O'Brien received honorable mention.

SMILING COACH SOUTH instructs Captain John Lockie in the art of shooting free throws.

THE 1961-1962 NORFOLK CATHOLIC BASKETBALL TEAM—Clockwise: Capt. John Lockie, Jim Lombard, Joe Sever, Paul Penland, Michael O'Brien, Carl Ward, Charles Williams, Fred Keilty, John Falls, Mike Hayes, Fred Stant, Gary Dzikowski.

CHARLES WILLIAMS IS ALL FORM as he drives for two against Eastern District Granby, in the second game of the season.

GET OFF MY BACK shouts Mike Hayes (35) as he hooks against arch-rival St. Paul.

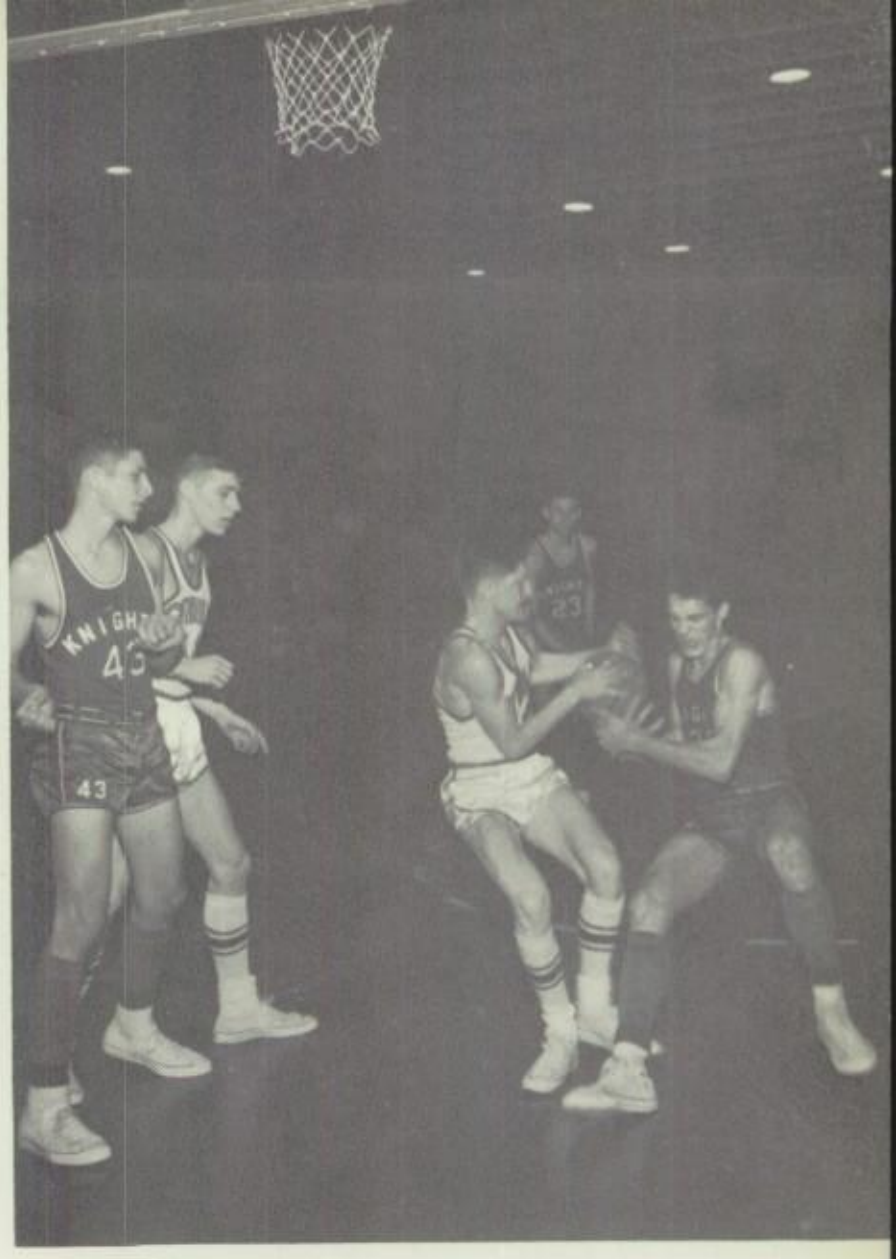
CARL WARD elbows a team-mate as four-handed Mike O'Brien runs and lays it up against Granby.

JUNIOR ALL-STATER Fred Stant makes it look easy as he lays one up against St. Pauls.

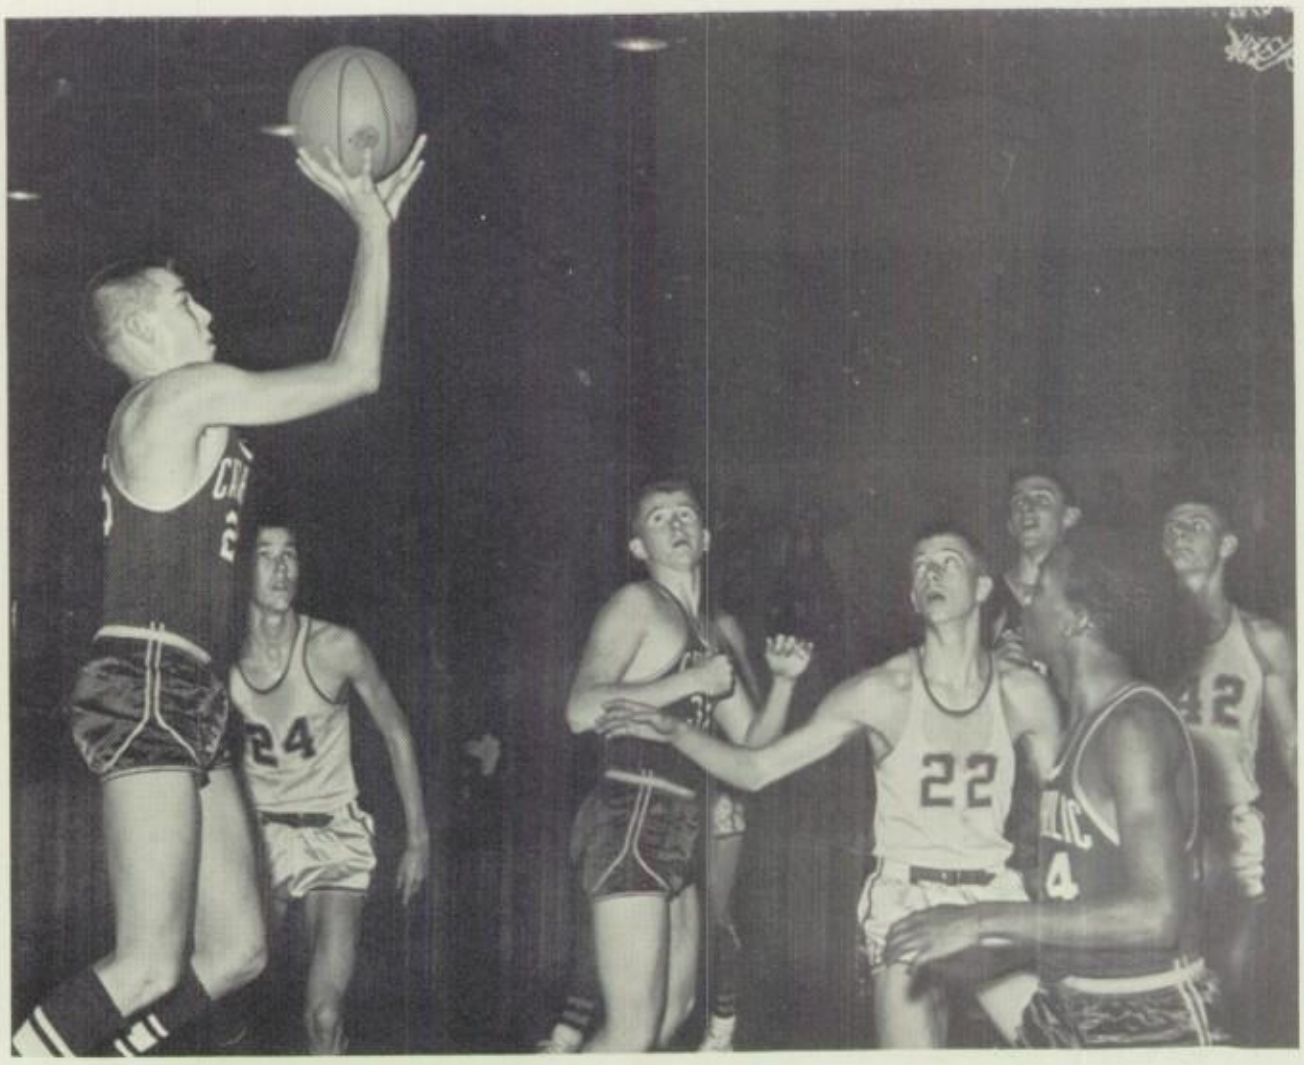
GARY DZIKOWSKI PUMPS one of his specialties, a one handed jump shot, from the key in the St. Vincent's game.

HE FLIES THROUGH THE AIR with the greatest of ease; but Mike O'Brien's two-pointer just isn't enough to break the Comet's jinx.

REBOUND! EXCLAIMS COACH SOUTH as he instructs his team in the art of defense. Hearing this John Lockie looks very doubtful.



"HANDS OFF" murmurs Gary Dzikowski as he tries to aim a rebound in the St. Vincent game. Fred Stant awaits the outcome.



ALL EYES ON THE BASKET—John Lockie shows supreme ability with another basket against our next-door neighbor, Granby.

Crusaderettes

Sparked by both team and school spirit, and the adept coaching of Mrs. Fitzpatrick, the Crusaderettes captured their third consecutive championship, entitling them to the permanent possession of the girls' championship trophy. The ever-present desire to win, linked with the student body's desire for them to win, encouraged the girls to battle their way to the coveted top-seeding.

Earlier when handed a disappointing loss by the ever-improving team from Saint Gerties, the fighting Crusaderettes, with no apparent loss of faith in themselves or their coach, went on to clobber this same team in a breathtaking championship game.

In summing up the feelings of this optimistic team toward the coach who gave them the confidence to be so, it is only fitting that we quote what the girls themselves said as they presented "Mrs. Fitz" with the traditional corsage prior to the final tournament game—"To the greatest coach who made us the greatest team".

THE MIGHTY CRUSADERETTES convocate around Mrs. Fitzpatrick during a time-out. It looks as if the team needs some reassuring advice.

ALL EYES ARE ON THE BASKET as Peggy Chapman drives on to score another two points for the glorious victory over arch-rival Saint Paul.

"EXCUSE ME, GIRLS" replies Pat Howard and Cheryl Iantosca as they show their re-bounding ability against the Paulettes.

remain 'big winners'

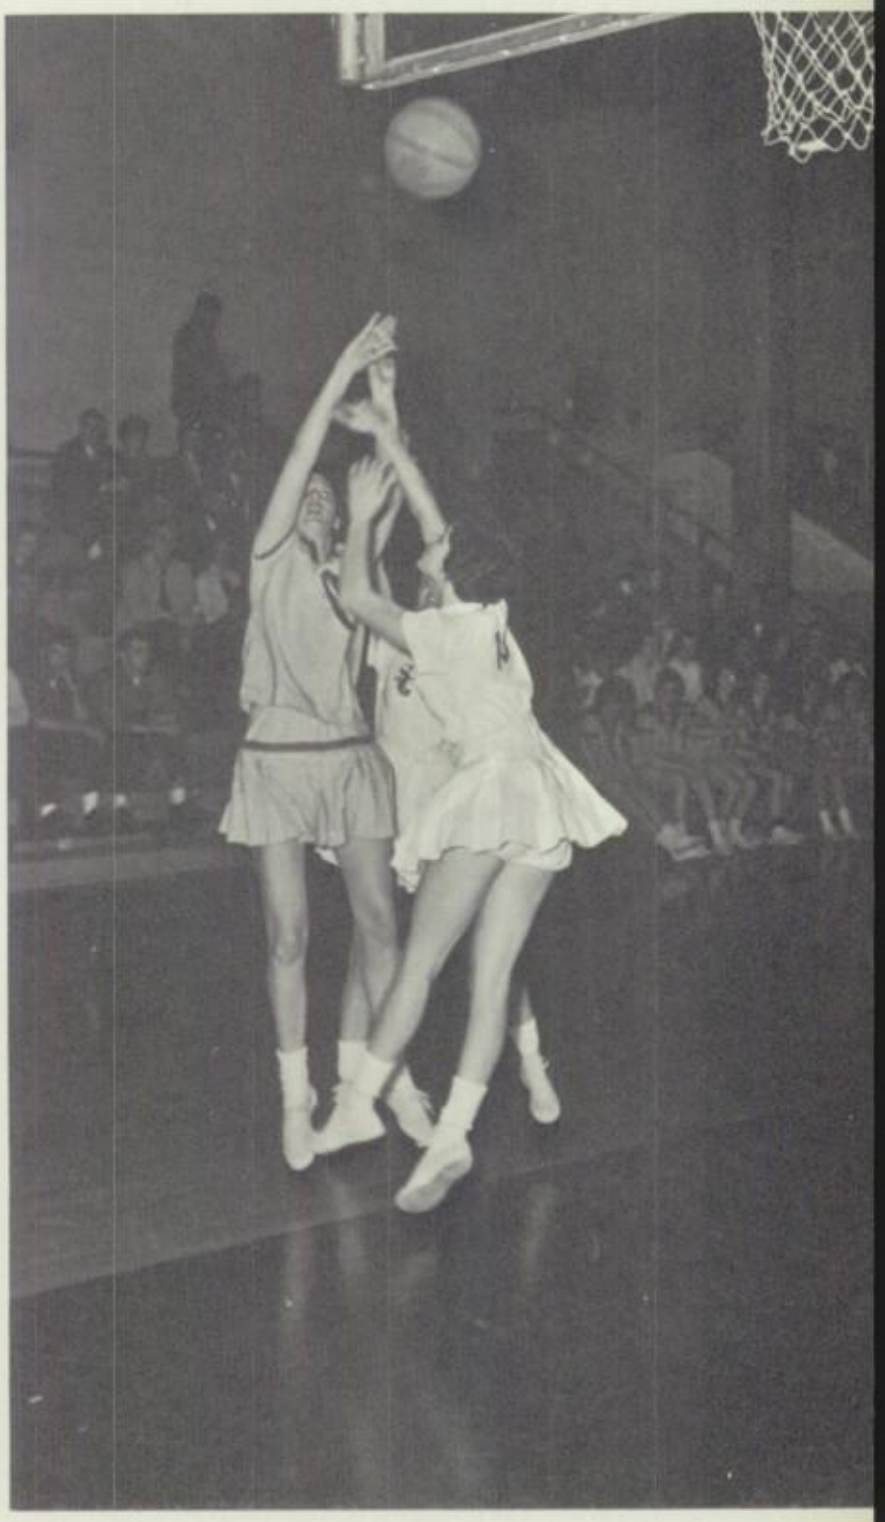
PEGGY CHAPMAN sank 21 points in the final game to lead NCHS to victory and win both a berth on the all-tournament team, the M.V.P. and the tournament's trophy. Ann Dudzik of St. Paul's, Skeeter Poli, forward for St. Gertrudes, and her two teammates, Kay Myer, who unsuccessfully guarded Peggy, and a sub who scored one field goal in the finals, and Cheryl Iantosca, an outstanding guard for Catholic were also all-tournament, and posed with Bishop Russell and their coveted trophies.

M.V.P. PEGGY CHAPMAN controls the tap for the Crusaderettes as Eugenia Fedorowicz (5) and Jackie Gearheart (3) impatiently await the verdict.

THE DEFENSIVE ACTIONS OF SAINT GERTRUDE'S are in vain when Peggy Chapman moves in for another two pointer.

EUGENIA FEDOROWICZ desperately grabs another rebound for the Crusaderettes in their victory over St. Gertrude's. Peggy Chapman moves in for the rescue.

SAINT PAUL'S GUARDS stand hopelessly as Jackie Gearheart makes another two points for Catholic's victory.



"NOT AGAIN" murmurs the on-looking St. Gertrude opponents as Denie Fedorowicz tallies another basket for the mighty Crusaderettes.

JANICE KOLODZIEJ finishes a Norfolk Catholic fast-break, with a perfect layup in the St. Gertrude's game.

At the beginning of this wrestling season, the Norfolk Catholic wrestling team was a team without a coach and without a hope. Then Mr. Gunst, a graduate of Lehigh College with two high-school state championships and an impressive college record to his credit, took over as coach. Mr. Gunst has led the Crusaders to a 6-2 season, losing only to state champion Granby High School and to Norfolk Academy. Two Catholic Grapplers, Paul Cote and Mike Caprio displayed perfect records, 8-0 and 5-0 respectively. During the 1962 season the Catholic squad rose from the depths of obscurity to a first-class wrestling power.

One more team was added to Norfolk Catholic's growing athletic department this year. The Catholic tank men led by Mrs. Burcheet, one of Norfolk's finest coaches, achieved a 2-4 record in their first year of competition and placed third in the all city swimming meet. The team captains were Jeff Eyer and Keith Nichols.
